STEPHEN KENNETH MOORE
Steve

What's the use running when you're on the wrong road.

GREGORY FRANCIS MOYNAHAN
Rodney, Bill, "the man"

Don't ever tell anybody anything. If you do, you start missing everybody. — Holden Caulfield

It's 1999, but you may be reading this sometime in the 21st century.

1998 was the 70 home run season of Mark McGwire but the story everyone is talking about in January 1999 is the Monica Lewinsky/Bill Clinton scandal. Since Seinfeld ended last season there hasn't been any TV show that has had America's complete attention, though South Park and The Jerry Springer Show each gained brief fame with their shock tactics. We are currently between big movies. Titanic is out on video and many are eagerly awaiting the fourth of the Star Wars movies.

Scituate High School is peaceful and secure, as few even have locks on their lockers. Nobody takes anything too seriously at SHS and we like it that way. We are currently in the third and last year of block scheduling but the hottest topic of the 1998-1999 school year has been the ruling by Dr. Burke, the principal, that hats are no longer to be worn in school. This ruling has been called "schwagg" (stupid) by the students.

Ronnie Shone's just down the street from the high school has been a place to go either before or after school for the past four years. TK O'Malley's in Scituate Harbor and the Hanover Mall are two other places where people often go, but the majority of socializing is done at home. And every boy who needs a haircut heads to Rocco's. At one point in their lives, every member of our class has commented that, "There's nothing to do in Scituate." Because there is such a wide variety of students at SHS, it is impossible to summarize all of their interests. Though we often criticize ourselves for being so separate, the Class of '99 is a wonderful group of kids who, fortunately, grew up in a safe and beautiful town. DAVE MARSHALL '99

CAROLINE NUGENT

The only failures in life are the risks you don't take.

PETER T. O'BRIEN

BOYS SPORTS

Seniors, L-R: Nick Bogusz, Al Minier, and Marc Westcott.

Drew Humphries works his way down the slope.

Excerpted from Marc Westcott's Scituation article "The Glory Days." We must say goodbye to yet another talented group of senior athletes. For the past four years, these athletes have been striving to achieve the ultimate satisfaction that their sport can offer, whether it be a league championship or a single victory over a longtime rival. For many, goals have been met and surpassed, but those who failed will never get the chance to do it again . . . During high school, sports have been their life. Some might play on an intramural team at college or they might be lucky enough to play on their varsity college team, but most will never strap on the helmet, lace up the cleats, or put on a uniform again. These players have given their school and their community four years of hard work and dedication and to these athletes we say "Thank you" for all that you have done.

You are the perfect, shining example of what a daughter should be and the child every parent dreams of - love and laughter, beautiful and good,
honest and principled,
determined and independent,
sensitive and intelligent.
The world is a better place
